

Car Thieves Active In Gleichen, Cluny

Last week the district north-east of Gleichen had a visit for a car or some, determined car thieves. They pushed Adolph Hoff's older car on to the road, after being unsuccessful in trying to start the new car, by joining the wires in the absence of the key. Failing at Mr. Hoff's to get a car, they went on down the road a mile to Mr. Billy Moore's, and took his car. However they got only about a mile and a half from there when they abandoned it because of no water, or oil in the car. With purpose still in mind, they took Min Gordon's car. Mr. Gordon lives in Cluny. With this car they got as far as a few miles east of Bassano, abandoning that car there. Apparently it had run low on water, because when the car was found, the block was damaged, as if water had been poured in it when too hot. These are latest reports, with no information as to the thieves.

Denton Sammons, who lost over one hundred and fifty dollars, and Laurie Brown, who lost a small sum to a hotel prowl in Calgary, have had no encouraging reports of recovery. These things we read about, but "never happen to us", hurt when they strike so close to home. The detectives discovered the prowler had used the professional flag-off trick on the Yale lock, and had left no further clues.

Mrs. and Mrs. Sam Duncan and young daughter are hollyeiving in Saskatchewan for a time.

Several people attended the Military dance in Bassano on Friday going down by car. All reported the trip worthwhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ferguson and son are in Raymond and Taber for a few days. Elaine Ferguson is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Lilla.

Mrs. Angus McLeay spent several days in Calgary last week.

Mrs. Jack MacArthur was a Calgary visitor on Saturday.

The ditch-digger in Gleichen is certainly making headway for the new water works. All Gleichenites are hoping good weather holds a little longer.

Cheadle Couple Married in Calgary at Double Ring Affair

St. Stephen's Church, Calgary, was the scene of the recent marriage solemnized between Phyllis Hartell, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hartell, lately of Strathmore, and Robert Angus Drake, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Drake of Cheadle. In a setting of which the main floral decoration was yellow and mauve shaggy mums, the couple exchanged rings and made their vows before the Rev. D. A. Ford of Strathmore, the bride being given in marriage by her father, W. H. Hartell.

Proceeding the bride down the aisle were Mrs. John Paris, sister of the groom and Mrs. C. E. Vermynt, sister of the bride. Mr. Bill Taylor was groomsmen and the guests were ushered by Mr. Jack Hartell and Mr. John Paris.

During the signing of the register Mrs. Bob Kourus sang "O Perfect Love" accompanied at the organ by Mr. C. Barrow.

A reception was held in the Lower Harris Sky Room where the bride and bridegroom, assisted by their mothers received some seventy guests who later sat down to a delicious supper. Rev. D. A. Ford proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly responded. Dancing followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Drake later left on a motor trip to the States for their honeymoon and upon their return will take up residence in their new home at the Drake farm at Cheadle, Strathmore and district joins in wishing the happy couple every joy in their new life together.

Weyburn Groom Takes Local Girl As Bride on Friday

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Strathmore United Church last Friday at 5:00 o'clock when Young Vera MacKenzie, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie of Strathmore was united in marriage with Elmer Wallace Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Douglas of Weyburn, Sask. Rev. A. A. Hamilton officiated at the ceremony.

Before an altar decorated with white and mauve mums, and white candles in silver candlesticks, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore the wedding gown in which her grandmother was married, a floor-length eggshell tulle dress with beaded neckline and floor length embroidered veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Jean McMurray was the bridesmaid, gowned in black marquisette over pink taffeta. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and wore a smart small cap shaped hat.

Little Sandra MacKenzie, sister of the bride, made a pretty little flower girl, wearing a floor-length white organdy dress, white net cap and carried a colonial bouquet of mauve and white mums.

The best man was Mr. Ed Ferguson of Gleichen.

Bruce and Peter MacKenzie were the ushers.

Miss Jean Garrett effectively played the wedding music on the organ.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Walter Mercer sang "Because" very sweetly, accompanied by Miss Jean Garrett.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Dining Room of the Memorial Hall where the bridal couple received the felicitations of about fifty guests.

Assisting in receiving were the parents of the bride and groom.

Jensen Auction Sale Draws Large Crowd

On Wednesday, one of the largest auction sales ever held near Husar took place on the farm of Mr. Made Jensen, twelve miles north of Husar. Bidding was brisk, and prices right. The Wintering Hills F.P.W.A. served lunch to over 500 people, and cleared over $200.00 for their labour. Mr. Jensen has rented his farm, and is quitting farming, much to the regret of his neighbors.

On Wednesday evening, the Husar Community Hall Committee put a very successful dance on the hall, and cleared $81.50. The committee in charge were E. J. Bell, E. F. Blake, and C. P. English; the convener of the lunch committee was Mrs. E. F. Blake, assisted by Mrs. C. P. English, Mrs. Hans Buckenhardt, and several other volunteers.

Cole Sells General Store, Purchased by H. Grevett

Harold Grevett has purchased the business operated in Carseland by C. E. Cole for the past 27 years. It was announced this week. Mr. Cole is retiring from the business, and he and his family plan to continue to live in Carseland.

For the past thirteen years Mr. Grevett has been travelling through Alberta and Interior B.C., for Lever Brothers and prior to that travelled for MacDonald Tobacco. He is married, and has two daughters. Mrs. Grevett and her family will move to Carseland next spring when accommodation can be obtained.

Mr. Grevett has been active in sporting circles for many years, having made the first curling broadcast in Alberta back in the 1935 finale. He is a member of the Calgary Curling Club, and plans to transfer his activities to Carseland. In addition, he has been interested in baseball and hockey in Calgary sporting circles for years.

Mr. Grevett has a long history of service club work, having been president of the Calgary Active Club and district governor, president of the drug travellers association, and a hotel member of the Associated Canadian Travellers and North West Commercial Travellers.

Mr. Grevett plans to associate with the Red and White cross, and will name the store Harold's General Store. It will open November 19 and 20.

Lions See Group of Notes From the Films at Meeting Community Council

One of the largest groups for the fall met in the dining room of the Memorial Hall on Thursday last for the regular Lions meeting, when Messrs. Andy Scott and Charlie Scott served a very tasty dinner. Visitors at the meeting after quite some absence were Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hirtle, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eyles, all of Calgary.

Mr. Harry Brown was welcomed to the group as a new member.

Some discussion took place over the work to be done on the wading pool, and it was tabled for further reports. It was agreed to make a donation to the appeal from the Institute for the Blind, following a recent letter.

Winner of the Scott Pot for the evening was Charles Harvey.

Mr. Ian MacKenzie was present and showed a series of National Film Board pictures, which were well received by the audience. Well filmed, the pictures included reels depicting phases of the development of Canada, and the ancient civilization of the Aztecs.

Old-time Resident J. W. Jenkins, Passed

Word was received recently of the passing of Richard W. Jenkins, who was a resident of Strathmore for ten years some time ago. Mr. Jenkins, who was 76, came to Strathmore in 1909, and lived for some time in the house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Crory and Mr. United States, where he has lived since.

Benson. In 1919 he returned to the Survivors as his widow, Mrs. Alta Jenkins, four daughters, Mrs. Ruby Miner of Strathmore, Mrs. Myrtle Prince of Victoria, Mrs. Pearl Bradford of Vancouver, and Mrs. Huberta Church of Corona, Washington.

Mrs. Miner returned to Corona to attend funeral.

First fall meeting of the Community Council was held Thursday evening in the Town Hall with President K. Baldwin presiding.

Regarding the deficit of $199 on the year's operation of the Swimming Pool it was moved that the Community Council ask the Town Council to meet this deficit.

A motion that $75 donated from the Students Council be paid to the Projector was carried.

Discussion over the care and possible rental for the Public Address equipment arose and Messrs. A. Chase and B. Donovan were appointed a committee to discuss the problem and report at the next meeting.

J. Crellin spoke on the balance owing on the system and he was authorized to pay this amount as soon as funds are available.

The resignation of Mrs. Kimmitt as President of the Handcraft Guild was read and accepted, a Mrs. Kimmitt has left the district. Gratification was expressed at the work accomplished, and also pleased that the work is to be continued.

The National Fitness Course was discussed and left with the same committee to see if a candidate can be obtained to carry on the work required, next year.

A question of showing films to adults was discussed by R. J. Milligan, and it was moved that some of these be shown at the time of the Annual Meeting Nov. 20.

The Aquatic Sports were favorably commented on and it was felt that greater interest had been taken in Swimming than hitherto which merited the interest of the group.

A nominating Committee of officers for next year, consisting of R. J. Milligan, S. B. and Geo. Quinn was elected.

(Being dead . . . by faith still speaking - Heb. 11:4 RV)

Hark ye! List to voices calling,
Calling from that timeless shore,
Bring a message from "The Fallen"
Where death greets them nevermore:
"All we had we gave for Freedom;
Fought a lasting peace to gain,
Dying for Christ's peaceful kingdom:
Must our sacrifice be vain?
"For we still hear noise of battle,
War being waged for lust of power;
Hear the sabers, how they rattle
Dooming world to fateful hour.
"Would ye victor's harvest gather
Raise the flag of brotherhood—
Or, be ruled by pride than rather Struggle for the common good?

"Fan the spark of peace till brighter
Burns a flame of kindly mood;
Grasp the olive branch still tighter,
Clasp strange hands in brotherhood.
"Pride of race: it, too, must perish,
Self be lost for common weal;
Feed the starving,—lonely cherish
That the wounds of war may heal.
"Bitter hearts and hatred banish,
Sow good-will and Regard the Good:
Kindly thoughts make war clouds vanish:
Raise the flag of brotherhood—
"Ere the human race must perish,
Perish in war's jaws of hell;
Ye, who sons and daughters cherish
Must the cause of war expel!—

In Others' Words

Not Enough to Observe The Period of Silence

Within a few days we will pause in our everyday activities in memory of those who gave their all in World Wars I and II. This is fitting for we owe much to the men of the fighting forces, but in this pause we should not think we have paid the debt to all who served in the forces. There are many today who may seem to have been forgotten. While we observe the Remembrance day many will be wearing a symbol, the poppy of Flanders fields. These poppies are a symbol of those who sleep and of those who are carrying on valiantly despite tremendous physical handicaps resulting from their experiences in the armed forces. They are the men who gave their lives for their country and for the people which are sold upon our streets and which will be sponsored in practically every town in the district November 6 by the Canadian Legion.

Let us realize we are repaying in a minute measure the services rendered when we buy a poppy and let us give generously as an indication to those who fashioned the symbols that we have not forgotten their part in preserving for us the opportunity to give generously to such a cause.

Should Put Ban on News To Worry Farmer

While we all have our worries, and when they are greatest it seems none can be as heavy as ours, and the one remaining anxiety which attends farming is in the major ranks, for when the farmer has worries they are usually of the nature of the weather and the outcome of his season's work. Thus it is he must worry about the spring break-up period and the need for sufficient moisture to seed the grain, but even before this germination process has started he must worry about an early start in seeding. After the crop is seeded he must hope for adequate moisture when needed. After the grain is approaching the ripening stage he starts to worry about the possibility of frost and as it ripens he must contend with the weather in threshing before his season's crop of grain is in the granary. Although not so definitely defined the farmer who raises livestock is faced with similar worries.

And we cannot blame our farmer friends if they show their anxiety for the lack of moisture, over supply of moisture, presence of frost or similar conditions of nature depends his entire year's income and the wellbeing of himself and family, not to mention the investment he has made in preparing for production.

Thinking they feel there should be an off season for farmers' worrying. The fellows should be given a break. Such a break is not given when government officials state as they did this week, telling about the inadequate moisture supply for the winter wheat crop. Just when the farmer thinks he has come to the end of his worries for a few months he can now lie awake nights worrying about whether his next year's crop will have sufficient moisture.

True enough it is well to be prepared and be aware of possibilities but such forecasts cannot be too accurate for many factors will enter into the picture. Before seed time comes we can have a heavy fall of snow which will soak into the ground, we may have adequate spring rains after seeding is finished or we may have plenty of moisture after the crop is seeded. Information which this week was thought of such possibilities will help make the winter plan for farmers and can certainly be given as accurately as the worrying type brought to the farmer's attention.

KEEPING STREETS CLEAN

We've often wondered, and occasionally asked, why Main Street doesn't have a couple of waste barrels placed at convenient locations. Few people will bother to stuff cigarette boxes, gum or chocolate bar wrappers, old letters or papers or such in their pockets, nearly all of us throw them away. And doubtless a good many would continue to throw them away if barrels were set up for them.

But we think there are quite a number of orderly souls who appreciate an opportunity to be tidy, and who would welcome a barrel here and there.

At least, it would help to keep things a bit cleaner.

WHITE FROST

These are the days when a white frost rises with the early worker and covers, like a canopy, the surrounding landscape. No spot is overlooked—every outdoor object is painted with the ubiquitous whitewash brush of frost. The top of the car left out over-night is cloaked in fine white, the green and brown of the grass, the hedge, the majestic tall tree with offshoots of twigs and branches which peep and sparkle like icicles from a leafless skeleton. Everywhere, nature has donned a handsome garb of white.

Like the early riser, the frost seems to take on life when sleepy eyes are rubbed and the day begins to brighten. As the sun begins to dawn on the far horizon, white grass begins to sparkle. The trees rustle and cast off Christmas light reflections that dazzle the eyes. The white forms are speaking; there is life in the atmosphere.

As the painter eliminates the white base with coatings of color, so does the sun melt the frost into nature's autumn colors. It is that intermediate period after the first glimpses of daylight but before the rise of a warm sun that the unique outlines of white dance and play in the breezes. It is something few of us care to miss. It signifies the last heaves of summer; it presages the first comings of winter. White frost.

"THE VOICE OF THE PEEPUL"

On rather infrequent occasions we're surprised when we receive a letter to the editor. Surprised because it is so infrequent. So this week we were pleasantly surprised to be able to run a letter actually agreeing with us.

We've often wondered why it is that newspapers receive so comparatively few letters to the editor. For some time we have felt that a weekly paper should be a forum for community expression. Yet so many people who are prepared to talk freely and interestingly in private conversation will wilt at the thought of committing their ideas to paper. It seems that, week in and week out, only the editor is supposed to keep his neck stuck out.

Garden officiating. Burial was in Union Cemetery, Calgary. Pallbearers were A. M. England, Joseph Kodahl, P. H. Den Boer, P. McLean, Carl Browns and Phil Riley.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Standard invites letters from its readers. All letters to the editor should be: 1. signed, though not necessarily for publication; 2. not of a libelous nature; 3. condensed, under 300 words. The Standard reserves the right to edit or condense where necessary.

The Editor,
Dear Sir,

I am entirely in agreement with your editorial of last week in which you suggest the instituting of a business license in Strathmore. It is just about the only town around here which does not have some form of business license, and it seems to me that it is long overdue. People can come in from outside places and do business all over the town and not pay a cent, while the stores on Main Street have to pay a big part of the shot for the whole town. It just doesn't make sense. How can we compete for prices with a man who doesn't pay any taxes here, when ours are out of sight?

Maybe you can't collect a lot of money from him, but even a little bit would help to cut the load for the people in the town, and it would certainly help to bring his prices more in line with the ones we have to charge. By all means, let's even things up.

Yours truly,
High Taxpayer

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Strathmore residents are once more reminded of the times of the year when the services of the service at the Cenotaph start at 11 a.m. while Sunday's service at the Hall is at 3 in the afternoon.

Manchester Guardian

Adult conversation at the home of a friend had touched on the expected royal baby and a five-year-old daughter asked to be asked "how does Princess Elizabeth know she is going to have a baby?" Before any parent could give a careful and truthful reply her elder sister had retorted with the scorn of superior wisdom, "Why, silly, it's in all she's needed nothing more to be said!"

Bert Horton, Early Settler, Passes On

William Bert Horton, of Tudor, passed away last Thursday morning in Rockyford, while on a visit there. His passing was quite sudden. Mr. Horton was 57, and suffered a serious accident with a tractor last spring, but no warning of death was given.

Born in North Dakota, Mr. Horton wed to Brandon with his parents, and to Strathmore in 1910. He farmed at Standard for ten years and then managed the Unit Growers elevator at Tudor for 12 years. He was a member of the Maroon Lodge, No. 10, and also of the Chevalier Lodge, No. 10, in Calgary.

His wife, Mary, one daughter, and one son, John H. DeLaval, are survivors.

WHEAT GLUT POSSIBLE

In an address given in Regina last week, J. H. Wesson, president of the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool, said that there is a possibility of a world wheat glut in 1949. This statement was predicated on the possibilities of large wheat crops in the United States and Europe next year. A record Canadian crop would increase the probability of such a surplus developing. The British-Canadian wheat agreement, Mr. Wesson said, would provide a cushion against a collapse of wheat prices for next year at least.

Farm News

Produced by the Alberta Department of Agriculture

Soil Testing Found to Have Limitations

During recent years, soil testing as a means of determining the fertilizer requirements and the fertility levels of the soil, has aroused considerable interest. Perhaps a too rapid growth of this interest, and lack of a proper understanding of the purpose of the so-called rapid tests, has caused misunderstanding of the information they provide, and a tendency to expect too much of them.

Plant nutrients occur in the soil in more than one form. Each form contributes in a greater or lesser degree to the feeding of plants, depending upon the degree of availability. The availability of the plant nutrients depends upon many factors because soil is not a simple system. It is a complex body in which many reactions are regulated by the nature of the soil, seasonal conditions and by soil management practices, says G. B. Whiteside, Dominion Experimental Station, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

The so-called rapid soil tests are designed to provide a means of obtaining a relative measurement of the plant nutrients present in the soil, which are considered to be readily available for plant use under the prevailing soil conditions. Carefully interpreted, the information obtained by rapid chemical tests may serve as an aid in determining the kind of fertilizer treatment required, but not necessarily the specific quantities of fertilizer to be applied.

Pure Seed Brings Quality in Crops

The grower who purchases Registered and Certified seed is getting the highest grade of seed obtainable. Registered seed maintains its pedigree only when it contains less than one major off-type plant per 10,000 plants while certified seed is allowed one off-type plant per 1,000 plants. These high grades of seed are distributed only when they are in sealed containers with identification carrying the grade and variety name. This is the purchaser's guarantee that the product he is securing has passed the field and seed inspections and that such seed comes up to the high standards for grades as set forth by the Canadian Seed Growers' Association and the Plant Products Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture.

Dairy Herd Records

Officials of the Dairy Branch of the Alberta Department of Agriculture, advise that one of the first steps in successful dairy production is to maintain in the herd only those animals that carry a high level of inheritance for production. The production from any one individual animal depends upon her inherited ability to produce, the feed you give her, and the way she is managed. You can alter your management and change your feeding practices, but if she does not possess the inherited ability to produce you might just as well save your feed and labour and get rid of her. Poor producers often weigh the same, occupy just as much barn space and require just as much labour as good producers.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

by Don Graham

How often we shy away from facts and allow our thinking to be coloured by emotions! Mr. White has somehow deceived himself into thinking that he is a very important man. To hear him, you would think that he was the moving force in the community and the brains behind important schemes.

Actually he is nothing of the sort. He is just kidding himself. And as a result he is unpopular in many directions.

Mr. Black has big plans for his job. He hopes things will "work out." But they never will—because he hasn't reached certain obstacles.

On many controversial subjects, Mr. Green has too prejudiced views. Facing the facts would temper opinions, but he ignores other side of the argument. So he doesn't see issues in their true light.

Lastly, there is Mr. Brown—a man who falls for good qualities doesn't like to want to.

Cluny Notes

by Mrs. M. C. B.

The regular meeting of the United Church W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Beattie on Tuesday, Nov. 2. There were 17 members and visitors present. Plans for the bazaar were completed.

The report of proceeds from the chicken supper was very gratifying as the W.A. cleared around $190.00. While returning from a birthday of one of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Roland on the Dave Nelson farm Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gordon and Joy met with what has proved to be a very serious accident.

Mr. Roland was driving them home, accompanied by his wife and two children and drove into the cattle crossing which is still open on the new highway east of the W. Chase farm.

Mr. Roland received a badly broken hand and Mrs. Gordon is in Basano hospital, extent of injuries not known at the time of writing. Except for suffering from shock and bruises we believe the rest of the party escaped very easily.

The car was almost demolished. The regular meeting of the Board of Trade held in the club room Mon. Nov. 1st, was well attended and plans are going forward successfully for the coming carnival.

Thursday, Nov. 4th, the W.I. held its monthly meeting in the club room with Mrs. Nobert as hostess. It was a very interesting and enjoyable evening. At the close of the business meeting the Secretary Mrs. J. Rieley acted as auctioneer for the articles "made from scraps" brought in by the members at the previous meeting. The sale was very successful and brought in $17.

There were 18 members and 2 visitors. Mrs. Graham assisted the hostess in serving lunch.

Car thieves visited Cluny on Thursday night and took Lynn Gordon's car which had been left in front of L. Creton's garage for repairs. The car was found east of Basano but as it had been driven without water it is badly damaged. It is reported that they made several unsuccessful attempts to take cars in the country doing more or less damage to cars.

UNDER THE STREETLAMP

Sid Coldwell was completing a form for Lucy Weishimer, and asked who was her next of kin.

"I haven't any," she said.
 "What?" said Sid, "no father, mother, aunts, brothers, uncles?"
 "No," said Lucy, and then added after a pause, a bit doubtfully, "there's my husband, if he'll do."

Cannibal Priests: "Am I too late for dinner?"
 Cannibal King: "Yes, everyone's eaten."

Stan Winters: "How did you make out with your exams?"
 Doug MacKenzie: "Oh, just like Napoleon."

Stan: "What do you mean?"
 Doug: "I went down in history."

They say that before the wedding Elmer Douglas was talking to Malcolm MacKenzie. "Your daughter, sir, has consented to marry me."

Doug: "I went down in history."

Magistrate Crowther: "What possible excuse did you fellows have for acquitting that murderer?"
 Jury Foreman: "Insanity, your honour."

Magistrate Crowther: "Really? The whole 12 of you?"

Bert Roberts was showing his school chum Wayne Riden, through the house. "This is my daddy's den," said Bert. "Does your daddy have a den?"

"No," was Wayne's answer. "he just growls all over the house."

Dorothy Gilbert: "I've got my husband where he sits out of my hand."
 Peggy Crockett: "Saves a lot of dish washing, doesn't it?"

Watson is coming along nicely. The basement for the new Roman Catholic Church is under construction. We believe it is almost all volunteer labour.

Stobart Notes

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ferguson and Wayne Bigalow attended the wedding of Miss Yvonne MacKenzie and Mr. E. Douglas in Strathmore on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Holland spent the week-end visiting relatives at Edmonton.

Mr. Geo. McBean and Maureen spent the week-end in Calgary.

Mrs. A. Kalmakoff is visiting for some time with her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Cook at Kelowna.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and son are visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cook.
 Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Desjardine left Tuesday to attend the wedding of Miss Olga Dupont at Didsbury. Mr. and Mrs. E. Dupont and family will be remembered by many of the district. They left to reside at Didsbury about twelve years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ferguson left Saturday for a holiday visiting relatives at Raymond.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McBean, Lloyd and Maureen spent Sunday in Calgary where a birthday dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker in honor of Miss Leona McBean's 21st birthday.

Mrs. A. Blais Sr. left the hospital Friday and is spending some time with her son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. O. Blais at Carleton Place. Although still weak, she is feeling much improved and we all wish for her quick convalescence and complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cook attended the I.G.O. convention in Calgary last week.

At the end of one of the ball games this summer, we hear, one of the players, John Buchner, who had batted badly and fielded even worse, approached Ray Ferguson.

"I think I'll scam now, if it doesn't matter," he said. "I've got a bus to catch."
 "That's all right," answered Ray. "Better luck with the bus."

For Women Only

In Toronto recently, Father Daniel A. Lord, Catholic Educator and editor from St. Louis made news by giving his views on love and marriage at the Eaton auditorium.

What he said in essence was that people of today are the most romantic of any age and the least successful in marriage and that a marriage based on love alone is doomed.

He quoted Somerset Maugham's comment that any clean, nice young man or woman could fall in love with any one of 100,000 of the opposite sex.

We recall Shaw made a similar observation in one of his plays.

It is a very accurate observation as any married man will tell you if his wife isn't around.

Father Lord gave his formula for a successful marriage. It consists of four "M's": mind, money, manners and meals.

Our discovery from quizzing a number of married men is that ability to prepare a good meal and to take care of the home efficiently is more to be valued than the "intellectual bent."

VEGETABLES WITH A DIFFERENCE

Consumption of vegetables is increasing, although probably the average Canadian still does not eat them in adequate amounts, we read. Vegetables are an inexpensive food which, if fussed up a little, may be most appealing, but they are very easily ruined by careless cooking.

For four months of each year gardens are luxuriant with a variety of vegetables but with cold weather such things as egg plant, celery, cauliflower, vegetable marrow, cucumber and scallions soon become pleasant memories. Other perishable vegetables such as asparagus, peas, beans and tomatoes may still be enjoyed as they come from cans or seedlings which were put away during the summer. Among all-winter standbys are cabbage and root vegetables. But if these are always just boiled the family will soon find them monotonous.

Just for variety, the coarse, stringy outer stalks of celery or misshapen branches cooked, are a delicious vegetable. If there isn't enough to serve alone they may be combined with carrots or tomatoes.

Start Fund For Britain Drive

The United Emergency Fund for Britain will start a three-week appeal for funds to aid needy Britons on November 14, continuing until December 5, according to an announcement made at the executive offices in Toronto.

Plans and objectives of UEFB, as outlined, include an overall voluntary aid to Britain program. Donations to the fund will be used to make bulk purchases of food and other supplies in Canada which will be shipped to UEFB warehouses in Britain for general distribution under the direct supervision of the organization's advisory council. Ocean shipping charges will be absorbed by the British government, who will also provide free dockage, handling, inland transportation and warehousing in the United Kingdom. All such gift supplies will be exempt from customs and excise duties, materially reducing costs and providing more relief for every dollar contributed.

UEFB will also forward, without cost, parcels packed by organizations in Canada for approved recipients in Britain if delivered at UEFB warehouses in collective shipments. Standardized UEFB packages, in various sizes and prices, containing selected foodstuffs for deficient diets, are being prepared and will be available shortly. Arrangements are being completed to handle donations of used clothing, bedding, and similar items, also without cost to the sender, early in the coming year.

Find Changes in Methods Being Used

Not many years ago most farmers waited until June 1st to seed their forage crops, particularly grasses. At that time the land selected was summerfallow. The seed was planted with a nurse crop about two inches deep, and this was followed by the packer. What contrast there is between that method and the one now in use! We now seed grass in the fall, in clean, undisturbed grain stubble, about one-half inch deep. Fall seeding of grass was given extensive study in the early years of the P.F.R.A. regrassing program. Both early and late fall proved desirable, the early fall seedlings being made between September 1 and 15, and late fall seedlings just before freeze-up. If moisture conditions were favorable grasses seeded in early fall made some growth before winter. Late fall seedlings lie dormant under the snow but made quick growth early in the spring. This procedure was particularly suitable for crested wheatgrass which grows best in cool weather.

The use of nurse crops was discontinued because they use too much moisture and the severe competition often resulted in poor grass stands. However, protection for the small grass seedlings is very desirable, and so the practice of seeding in stubble arose. Even seeding in dead annual weeds proved better than seeding with a nurse crop.

Most forage crop seeds are small and consequently have very little

CAR, TRUCK COLLIDE

A car driven by Gerald Rissoeur collided with a truck driven by Fred Anderson, at Keeling's Corner on Saturday evening. Injured in the crash was Miss Beverley Henderson, who sustained a number of facial cuts, torn leg muscles, a quantity of bruises, and several loose teeth.

The crash occurred after Mr. Rissoeur had taken his sister home, and was bringing the other occupants of the car back to Strathmore.

NOT MUCH EXAGGERATION NEEDED ABOUT WEATHER

Fifty years from now, the members of the present generation will have become old timers whose veracity will doubtless leave something to be desired, but they won't need to exaggerate very much about the year '48. At least they will be able to say truthfully that the spring of '48 was the worst and the fall the finest on record, adding a rider to the effect that "weather isn't what it used to be." It is to be supposed that the generation of that day will be duly impressed.

—Nanton News.

food reserve. It is essential therefore that the seed be near the soil surface in order that the little seedlings will break through to sunlight shortly after germinating. Practically all forage crops do best when seeded in the upper half-inch of soil.

For dry land pastures it is still not too late to seed crested wheatgrass or brome. Drill the seed into clean stubble about half an inch deep just before the ground freezes.

A New Travel Ration Period' Begins November 16th

AS ANNOUNCED BY THE MINISTER OF FINANCE THE REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE USE OF U.S. DOLLARS FOR TRAVEL CONTINUE IN FORCE.

As in the past, it will be necessary for Canadians to obtain a permit from their bank if they wish to take out of Canada more than $10 U.S. or more than $25 in U.S. and Canadian currency combined.

Reports show that the saving of U.S. dollars made possible by travel rationing can be expected to amount to between $40 and $50 million during the period November 16th, 1947 to November 15th, 1948. This substantial sum was thus made available for the purchase of many essential supplies and commodities during this time.

The regulations governing the amount of U.S. dollars available for different travel purposes are outlined below:—

Pleasure Travel

The maximum amount of U.S. dollars which any Canadian resident may obtain for pleasure travel purposes during the twelve months beginning November 16th, 1948, is $150. In the case of children of eleven years and under, the amount is $100. There is no restriction on the number of trips as long as the annual allotment is not exceeded. Any U.S. dollars obtained for one trip and not used on that trip must be brought back to Canada and exchanged for Canadian dollars at the traveller's bank immediately on his return. No credit for funds thus turned back can be allowed against the annual ration for subsequent trips.

Business Travel

Applications for U.S. dollars for business travel must include a certification by the employer that the travel is in his business interests. Reasonable amounts of U.S. dollars may be obtained for this purpose.

Border Travel

A Canadian resident may take out of Canada without a permit up to $25 in currency, of which not more than $10 is in U.S. currency. For this purpose, he may purchase up to $10 U.S. in any calendar month. This is in addition to the annual travel ration.

During one of the big thunder storms recently, A Kaslo man, who was afraid of thunder was caught out in the woods. So he spied a hollow log and crawled into it to escape. The thunder rolled, and the rain poured down in torrents. And the log swelled up so much that the poor fellow was wedged in so tight he couldn't get out. All his past sins began passing before him. Suddenly he remembered he had not paid his subscription to the "Kootenian," and he felt so small that he was able to crawl out of the log and go home. P.S.—He paid his subscription the next day.
